

It's more than an internship. It's a career opportunity.

Locations, Hawaii's largest real estate firm, is looking for top-performing, ambitious interns to work with some of the most innovative and accomplished marketing, sales and business professionals in the real estate industry.

Summary

Get your hands dirty with real world experience in the field of Marketing, with an industry leader. From day one, you'll be charged with driving innovation and implementing ideas that will take Locations to the next level. You'll experience a cycle of learning, succeeding, falling down, getting up and going back for more. Responsibilities will vary, but this experience is what you make of it. Upon graduation all interns will be considered for employment.

Areas of experience to be gained:

- Above the line advertising (TV, Print, Radio)
- Digital Marketing (Online, Social, Email)
- Integrated marketing
- Event marketing
- Project management of ideas from concept to reality
- Communications
- Strategic planning and budgeting
- Reporting and analysis

Who we are looking for Success-oriented, passionate entrepreneurs. Those who embody the innovator, the doer, the perfectionist, the strategist and the socialite – all in one package. Ambitious students who rise to the occasion when stakes are high. Those who take their work seriously without taking themselves too seriously.

- Passionate about marketing, advertising, and/or communications
- Accomplished, at school and in life
- Able to prioritize and manage projects
- Willing to learn and foster a positive environment
- Personable and willing to collaborate with people of all levels
- Able to work independently in a high energy and fast paced environment
- Embraces Locations values: Customers Rule, Better Together, Fair and Honest Above the Norm, and Business and Results Oriented
- Actively enrolled in a four-year university or college
- Maintaining a 3.5 or higher GPA